Federal Communications Commission
Office of the Secretary

TO: The Commission

GAME SHOW NETWORK, LLC
MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Game Show Network, LLC ("GSN") respectfully requests a short (three-day) extension of time for responding to Cablevision Systems Corporation's ("Cablevision") Petition to Stay Chief Administrative Law Judge Sippel's initial decision in this proceeding.¹ Instead of filing an opposition on Tuesday, January 10, 2017,² GSN requests to file its opposition to the Petition to Stay on January 13, 2017, which is the date on which it will file its replies to Cablevision's (1) Exceptions to the Initial Decision and (2) Opposition to Petition to Compel Compliance.³ GSN

¹ Cablevision Sys. Corp., Cablevision Systems Corporation's Opposition to GSN's Petition to Stay the Initial Decision, Game Show Network, LLC v. Cablevision Sys. Corp., MB Docket No. 12-122, File No. CSR-8529-P (Jan. 3, 2017); see also Game Show Network, LLC v. Cablevision Sys. Corp., Initial Decision of Chief Administrative Law Judge Richard L. Sippel, MB Docket No. 12-122, File No. CSR-8529-P, 16D-1 (ALJ Nov. 23, 2016).

² Under the Commission's Rules, oppositions to a request for stay are due seven days after the request is filed. 47 C.F.R. § 1.45(d). Cablevision filed its Petition for Stay on January 3, 2017.

has conferred with both Cablevision and the Enforcement Bureau, and neither party opposes this request.

The short extension of time will enable GSN to align the filing of multiple pleadings, all of which consider interrelated issues from this proceeding's large and complex record.⁴ In particular, Cablevision's Petition to Stay the Initial Decision relates closely to, and was filed in the alternative to, its Opposition to GSN's Petition to Compel Compliance. In aligning the deadlines, GSN believes it will be able to respond to Cablevision's pleadings more efficiently and in a more streamlined manner, without causing significant delay.⁵

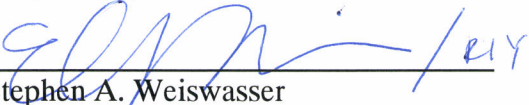

This request is timely under Section 1.46 of the Commission's Rules.⁶ GSN's counsel has orally notified counsel for the other party and the Commission's staff of this filing, and GSN is authorized to state that Cablevision and the Enforcement Bureau do not object to the grant of GSN's request.

⁴ See Game Show Network, LLC v. Cablevision Sys. Corp., Order, MB Docket No. 12-122, File No. CSR-8259-P, DA 16-1393, at 2 (OGC rel. Dec. 15, 2016) (granting page-limit extension on exceptions due to case record that is "large . . . and addresses a number of complex factual and legal questions related to carriage of video programming").

⁶ Pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 1.46(c), GSN has orally notified Cablevision and the Enforcement Bureau (neither of which objects to this motion, as noted above), and has sought to provide oral notice to William Dever and Linda Oliver in the General Counsel's Office. On January 5, 2017, Elizabeth Canter and Rebecca Yergin, counsel to GSN, provided advanced email notice to the General Counsel's office through an email exchange with William Dever and Linda Oliver, and GSN will provide the oral notice in a telephone call now scheduled by the parties for Monday, January 9, 2017.

Respectfully submitted,
